

Kristen B. LaCount, CCM
General Manager & Chief Operating Officer
The Country Club
Brookline, Massachusetts

Kristen attended Johnson & Wales University in Providence, Rhode Island, graduating with an Associate Degree in Culinary Arts and Bachelor of Science Degree in Food Service Management. Upon graduation, Kristen became an Assistant Manager at The Country Club in Brookline, Massachusetts. Kristen became Club Manager in October 2007, Assistant General Manager in January 2013, and assumed the position of General Manager in October 2020. She became a Certified Club Manager in November 2009. Kristen has served as President of the New England Club Managers Association and is an active committee member of the National Club Association. Kristen has taught classes as a guest speaker & panelist at local universities and national conferences. Kristen resides in Milton, Massachusetts with her husband, Dan Kerrigan, who is an owner of two restaurants. They have two children, Tenley (8) and Sam (6).